#Provident Fund Contribution Option:
As permitted by the Employees Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 and its Rules, at the time of joining, if you give your written consent, Company will provide you an option to limit your Provident Fund Contribution to maximum monthly wage ceiling defined by EPF authority (Currently it is Rs. 15,000/- per month) instead of on the entire basic salary mentioned in this salary break-up sheet. You understand and agree that if you explicitly consent to choose the above mentioned option, you will see following impact in your monthly pay slip.

- There is no impact on your Gross salary and CTC salary as stipulated under Annexure A.
- Both Employee's contribution and Company contribution to E.P.F will be lesser than what is mentioned in the salary break-up sheet under Annexure A -I point no. 3. Differential amount will be shown under "Special Pay I" in your pay slip. Income tax deduction benefit would reduce to that extent.
- As EPF deductions are less, your take home pay would be more than what is stipulated under Annexure A. This will attract appropriate income tax.

You agree and understand that as and when the EPF authorities revise maximum monthly wage ceiling (currently Rs. 15,000/- per month) appropriate changes will be made keeping the same principle, i.e. limiting both employee and employer contribution to statutory wage ceiling, as long as it is permitted by the law.

Starting contribution to pension plan at an early age gives you enough time to contribute towards building your retirement corpus and leverage the compounding interest earned by the corpus year on year. You simply have to choose the scheme that suits your investment horizon and risk tolerance.

A voluntary defined contribution Plan wherein you will have an option to enroll and choose your Pension Service Provider (PSP) within 30 days from the date of joining the company.

We currently have tie-ups with two leading PSPs to manage the superannuation funds. LIC & ICICI offer a superannuation scheme which offers interest on accumulated balance every year. ICICI Prudential also has an Unit Linked Superannuation scheme which offers you a market linked return, range of fund options to suit your risk appetite & transparent fund management.

The enrollment option can be exercised only once in the service with the organization and cannot be reversed once made. VSS enrollment window period will, also, be available once every financial year. The Company, on behalf of the member employee, shall contribute 15% of basic salary, towards the scheme selected by the member. In case 15% of basic exceeds Rs.1,50,000 per annum, member employee will have an option to restrict the contribution to Rs.1,50,000 per annum to avoid perquisite tax (perquisite tax is applicable on contributions exceeding Rs.1,50,000 every year).

Annual pension contribution amount is re-adjusted from fixed cash component and will reflect under ‘Pension’ component in the salary stack of the enrolled member. The accumulated contribution amount and the interest earned (or the corpus) can be utilized to avail the retirement benefits.

For further clarity, please refer the Policy on My Wipro -> My Information Sources > India -> My Financials-> Deferred Benefits-> Voluntary Superannuation Scheme. After reviewing the related documents if you wish to enroll into VSS, please log onto My Wipro-> My data->My Financials-> Pension, and exercise the option within 30 days of joining the Company. In case you miss enrolling into VSS in this window period, you can do the same in the window period that is available for all employees once every financial year.

You simply have to choose the scheme that suits your investment horizon and risk tolerance.

A voluntary defined contribution Plan wherein you will have an option to enroll and choose your Pension Service Provider (PSP) within 30 days from the date of joining the company.

We currently have tie-ups with two leading PSPs to manage the superannuation funds. LIC & ICICI offer a superannuation scheme which offers interest on accumulated balance every year. ICICI Prudential also has an Unit Linked Superannuation scheme which offers you a market linked return, range of fund options to suit your risk appetite & transparent fund management.

The enrollment option can be exercised only once in the service with the organization and cannot be reversed once made. VSS enrollment window period will, also, be available once every financial year. The Company, on behalf of the member employee, shall contribute 15% of basic salary, towards the scheme selected by the member. In case 15% of basic exceeds Rs.1,50,000 per annum, member employee will have an option to restrict the contribution to Rs.1,50,000 per annum to avoid perquisite tax (perquisite tax is applicable on contributions exceeding Rs.1,50,000 every year).

Annual pension contribution amount is re-adjusted from fixed cash component and will reflect under ‘Pension’ component in the salary stack of the enrolled member. The accumulated contribution amount and the interest earned (or the corpus) can be utilized to avail the retirement benefits.

For further clarity, please refer the Policy on My Wipro -> My Information Sources > India -> My Financials-> Deferred Benefits-> Voluntary Superannuation Scheme. After reviewing the related documents if you wish to enroll into VSS, please log onto My Wipro-> My data->My Financials-> Pension, and exercise the option within 30 days of joining the Company. In case you miss enrolling into VSS in this window period, you can do the same in the window period that is available for all employees once every financial year.

#Provident Fund Contribution Option:
As permitted by the Employees Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 and its Rules, at the time of joining, if you give your written consent, Company will provide you an option to limit your Provident Fund Contribution to maximum monthly wage ceiling defined by EPF authority (Currently it is Rs. 15,000/- per month) instead of on the entire basic salary mentioned in this salary break-up sheet. You understand and agree that if you explicitly consent to choose the above mentioned option, you will see following impact in your monthly pay slip.

- There is no impact on your Gross salary and CTC salary as stipulated under Annexure A.
- Both Employee's contribution and Company contribution to E.P.F will be lesser than what is mentioned in the salary break-up sheet under Annexure A -I point no. 3. Differential amount will be shown under "Special Pay I" in your pay slip. Income tax deduction benefit would reduce to that extent.
- As EPF deductions are less, your take home pay would be more than what is stipulated under Annexure A. This will attract appropriate income tax.

You agree and understand that as and when the EPF authorities revise maximum monthly wage ceiling (currently Rs. 15,000/- per month) appropriate changes will be made keeping the same principle, i.e. limiting both employee and employer contribution to statutory wage ceiling, as long as it is permitted by the law.

Any Mindtree Mind who retaliates against another Mindtree Mind for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

8) Dating/Romantic/Sexual Relationships

Mindtree recognizes that sometimes employees enter into personal relationships in the workplace, and this provision is not intended to prohibit such relationships. However, certain romantic or sexual relationships can interfere with the smooth operation of its business. Some of these relationships can also result in actual or potential disclosure of confidential or sensitive information and can have other detrimental effects. Mindtree reserves the right to determine when a relationship presents a problem in the workplace.

Without limiting its discretion to address problematic relationships or situations, Mindtree offers the following guidelines:

During working time and in working areas, employees must keep personal exchanges limited so that others are not distracted or offended, and so that productivity is maintained. During nonworking time, such as lunches, breaks and before and after work periods, employees may have appropriate personal conversations in non-work areas as long as their conversations and behaviors could not be perceived as offensive or uncomfortable to a reasonable person. Employees are strictly prohibited from engaging in conduct that would be deemed inappropriate by a reasonable person while on company premises, regardless of whether they are working at the time.

Mindtree generally considers employee off-duty conduct as private, as long as the conduct does not create problems within the workplace. Exceptions to this principle, however, involve 1) romantic or sexual relationships between supervisors and subordinates (regardless of the reporting structure) or 2) romantic or sexual relationships between any employee in the People Function or Finance departments and any other employee. Both employees involved in a relationship in either of these categories must immediately disclose to Mindtree the existence of a romantic or sexual relationship. Such required disclosure must be made in writing to People Function. People Function will provide an appropriate form upon request. Failure to make this disclosure may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. This disclosure will enable Mindtree to determine whether, given the relative positions of the individuals involved, action should be taken.

If Mindtree determines that action must be taken, it may ask one or both of the employees to transfer to another position, location, or project. If a transfer proposed by Mindtree is refused, or if Mindtree determines that the situation cannot be adequately addressed by transfer (or if Mindtree determines that transfer otherwise would not be in the best interests of Mindtree), Mindtree may terminate the employment of one or both employees. Mindtree has the sole discretion to determine whether a problem exists and how to address it. Accordingly, Mindtree is not limited to transfer and discipline/termination as its only options.

9) Personal Behavior

Mindtree expects all Mindtree Minds to be honest and fair in dealing with people, customers, vendors, competitors or others because you are the brand ambassador of Mindtree and your actions help to form others' impressions about Mindtree.

10) Breach of Discipline

As discussed above, Mindtree expects all Mindtree Minds to behave in a professional manner. Listed below are categories of inappropriate conduct that may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment from Mindtree (This list is just illustrative and not exhaustive).

"Theft, fraud, forgery, embezzlement, misappropriation; dishonesty, harassment, indecent behavior, sexual advances, suggestive remarks, racial slurs, derogatory remarks/discrimination on - disability, veteran status, national origin, sexual orientation, race, color, religion, political affiliation, sex, or age. The list also includes forwarding/ viewing pornographic material at work or on work computers or other devices, willful insubordination, disobedience, absence without leave, habitually irregular attendance, neglect of work, willful damage of company property, disclosing/divulging trade secrets/confidential information/special processes/methodologies, unfair dealing with parties, false representation/misrepresentation, false recording/reporting of information, drunkenness, riotous behavior, commission of certain criminal offense(s), aiding or abetting any act listed herein, willful breach of law/rule / policy / guideline/procedure, working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs, creating/encouraging an offensive work environment, etc."

In the event Mindtree receives information suggesting that you may have engaged in any of the conduct described above, People Function personnel may require you to undergo necessary tests/assessments/inquiry as appropriate. You will be expected to cooperate in any investigation People Function or Mindtree management conducts or directs. Mindtree reserves the right to test Mindtree Minds for drug and alcohol use for cause or when a client requires testing.
